

SUSY searches at the LHC

Dr. Anna Sfyrla

CERN/ Genf

Supersymmetry is one of the best motivated and studied extensions of the Standard Model. Supersymmetric particles have been extensively searched for at collider experiments, evading discovery so far. This talk provides highlights of the searches performed so far at the LHC and gives prospects for the near future.