

The measurement of b-production at the LHC and the CMS pixel detector

*Dr. Wolfram Erdmann
PSI, Schweiz*

The early LHC data opened up the opportunity to measure b-production in a new kinematic domain. A b-production measurement of the CMS experiment will be presented. B-physics results rely particularly on tracking. The pixel detector, a key element of the CMS tracking system, and its performance will be reviewed.