

Gauge fields far from equilibrium

Prof. Dr. Jürgen Berges

Institut für Theoretische Physik, Universität Heidelberg

The talk will be about recent advances in our understanding of gauge fields in extreme conditions out of equilibrium and the prospect of realizing important aspects of this dynamics using cold atom experiments.